Re: 2017 World Games

Dear Sirs,

On the event of the World Games 2017 that will take place in Wroclaw, Poland, from 20th until 30th July 2017, it is my pleasure to inform you that the athlete member of your National Federation mentioned below has qualified to participate in the event.

| Nº of qualified athletes | NAME | SURNAME | CATEGORY |
|--------------------------|-------|---------|--------------|
| 1 | Elena | Quirici | Female -68kg |

Karate competition will take place on 25th and 26th July 2017 at the GEM Sports Complex. There will be individual Kata and Kumite competition with 8 competitors per category and weight and round robin competition system will apply. Only WKF homologated protective equipment will be permitted. A detailed competition schedule will follow in due course.

All competitors will be offered free accommodation and meals by the organizers. The flight to Wroclaw will have to be borne by your National Federation. Date of arrival and departure will be 22nd/23rd July and 24th July will be official training day.

We kindly request you to provide confirmation for the above mentioned athlete concerning her participation in the designated category by 15th December latest. No confirmation by this deadline will be understood as no participation and WKF will immediately reassign the positions to other competitors according to the established substitution criteria. Please note that the assigned places for each National Federation are individual for each specific competitor.
